

It doesn't matter if you only hear from media lobbyists. Your responsibility is to take action for what is best for the country as a whole. That is what America is all about. Otherwise, we are nothing better than an oligarchy--ruled by the rich. The responsibility of the FCC is to protect the democratic nature of the means of mass communication. Period.